

Please clear your diary on the 4th of October. We're having a hoe-down at Scalm Park. All in aid of transplant charities. It's our 10th year (10th year of my father's transplant also) which is the given expectancy of a transplant. So we want to make this the best year yet. There'll be a fishing and golfing competition during the day, a family fun day during the afternoon, then a auction and sing along with a country singer. Fancy dress of wild west theme. If you can't make it, any donation would be incredible, be it money or a prize. Let's make this a year to remember.
